Thank you for your interest in the Seed for Change Creative Women Residency Program. This program is a flagship initiative of the Federal Ministry of Women Affairs under the Renewed Hope Social Impact Intervention (RH-SII 774) in partnership with Revamp Initiatives. This program is designed to equip Nigerian Women with practical and marketable skills in several areas of creativity, including drawing, painting, culinary and cooking, creative fashion designing (sewing, knitting, etc), photography, videography, and not limited to graphic art designing. It combines a 12-day intensive residency training with a 3-month mentorship program, ensuring that the participants not only acquire creative skills but also gain the capacity to build sustainable livelihoods and positively transform their communities.
